Notes for Asher Dunham:

Loyalist. Capt. Ashur Dunham issued Lot 1116 in Parrrtown in May 1784. He arrived with the June Fleet at Saint John with an adult female and two children in 1783, as head of Militia Company 63, on the ship Dutchess of Gordon. There are inconsistencies which need to be sorted out. His petition indicates that he was a resident of Morris County at the time of the Revolution and served the Loyalist cause in a number of ways. See <http://www.royalprovincial.com/military/mems/nj/clmdun.htm>. He was very dissatisfied with his situation where his company was usurped by another recruiter and Asher was left destitute and to fend for himself had to hire himself out and collect firewood. It is conceivable that he did return to the USA since the author has not been able to locate evidence of him in New Brunswick after 1784 - hence he is likely the Asher Dunham who died in Woodbridge in 1803, and buried in the Trinity Church Cemetery.

This from Jeff Dunham or Oregon, "His last will and testament was recently discovered in the Royal Archives (england). His will - executed in 1804 after his death - puts his place of death as Perth Amboy, NJ - very near Woodbridge, Middlesex, NJ where he is laid to rest. Ironically - the grave of Asher Dunham has a "replacement grave marker" supplied by the U.S. Veterans Administration that erroneously indicates he was a private in the New Jersey Militia (revolutionary). The act of an overzealous "church historian"...." (personal communication, December 2012).

Generation 5 (con't)

Notes for Daniel Dunham:

It is unknown as to what role Daniel played in the Revolution. He was evacuated from New York with the Fall Fleet on the ship Neptune arriving in Parrrtown (then NS) about 17 Oct. 1783. Daniel was listed among Militia Unit 50 under Capt. Thomas Fairchild. On or about 24 Dec. 1784 Daniel and sons David Alston, Jonathan and Seth Dunham signed the Huggeford Petition of Grievance complaining of the perceived mismanagement of the group assigned to offer compensation and land allotments. Sometime around May 1784 Daniel was issued Lot 687 in Parrrtown, the corner of Orange and Wentworth Streets. Listed 1785 among the Freemen of the City as a joiner.

He died on 10 Oct 1839 in Carleton, New Brunswick, Canada. He married Elizabeth Oliver on 06 Jan 1779 in Moravian Church, Staten Island, Richmond County, New York, USA.

Notes for John Dunham:

During the Revolution he was a member of the Kings American Dragoons. While in NB was a Lieut. and Capt. in the Saint John County Regiment of Militia. John arrived at Saint John with the July Fleet, Militia Comppany 16 (Captain John Mersereau) on the ship Lord Townsend, along with his brother Lewis.

Residence, 1784 Lot 4 Grand Lake, Queens County. Same year he purchased a lot on Grand Bay, Saint John, Kings County. From 1796 to 1802 John was an overseer of the poor, assessor, and surveyor of lumber and cord wood in Portland Parish. 1797, claim that John had not made any improvements on the Grand Lake lot. In 1805 it was recorded that lots on the South and Grand Bays of Saint John County - Lot 31, were in the possession of John. In 1820 it may be that he sold land to his brother David A. Dunham and moved to Carleton, where he had a town lot. John was apparently a proprietor of Dunham and Allen's Mills in Carelton, by the wharf in that location.

Notes for Daniel Dunham:

Daniel was unmarried. Came to Ontario in 1825 and with Catherine Daton (his mother, remarried?) purchased Lot 1, Bl.2, Con.1 of Binbrooke Township, Wentworth County. It would appear that his siblings came at various times soon thereafter. David Alston must have been there early since his son Jonathan was born in Ontario in 1826. Brother John was there by 1836 since his name and that of his elder brother Daniel are on a petition for a Presbyterian Church in Binbrooke.

- 19. JOHN⁷ DUNHAM (Lewis⁶, Daniel⁵, Joseph⁴, David Dunham alias³ Singletary, Jonathan Dunham alias² Singletary, Richard¹ Singletary) was born about 1796 in Fredericton, York, New Brunswick, Canada. He died in Dec 1846 in Binbrooke Township, Wentworth County, Ontario, Canada. He married ELEANOR STEERS.

Notes for John Dunham:

John came to Ontario likely with his siblings in 1825 or shortly thereafter, but it appears that his wife and one or more children went back to NB while John remained. John's daughter Mary Ann of Binbrooke Township took out a marriage bond 15 Dec. 1831 to marry Thomas Hart (also of NB). John and Daniel (his elder brother) signed a petition for a Presbyterian Church in Binbrooke in 1836. John froze to death in Binbrooke Township in December 1846 and a Coroner's Inquest was held.

Generation 7 (con't)

John Dunham and Eleanor Steers had the following children:

- i. JAMES⁸ DUNHAM was born on 24 Dec 1811 in Queensbury, York County, New Brunswick, Canada. He married Barbara Thornton on 31 Jul 1845.

Notes for James Dunham:

Baptized 6 Sept. 1818, Woodstock Parish. Both of Queensbury at time of marriage.

- ii. MARY ANN DUNHAM was born on 11 Feb 1815 in Queensbury, York County, New Brunswick, Canada. She died on 03 Sep 1899 in Barton Township, Wentworth County, Ontario, Canada. She married (1) THOMAS HART on 15 Dec 1831 (licence) in Binbrooke Township, Wentworth County, Ontario, Canada. She married (2) GEORGE DAWSON about 1846.

Notes for Mary Ann Dunham:

Baptized 6 Sept. 1818, Parish of Woodstock. There were two Mary Ann Dunhams linked to John and Eleanor Dunham. One, born in 1813, stayed in NB with her mother and was married and died there. The second was born in 1815, came to Binbrooke Township Ontario with all of the descendants of Lewis Dunham, including the father of Mary Ann, John Dunham who died in Binbrooke in 1840. The Mary Ann who married John Keach did not name any of her children John and Eleanor after her supposed parents (unusual at the time). However Mary Ann Dunham born 1815 named her first son by George Dawson, John, and her first daughter Eleanor - a bit more than coincidence one might maintain. The surname of Mary Ann born 1813 can be found in sources such as her marriage record, where her mother Eleanor signed permission (Mary Ann being underage) with the note that her father was out of the Province at the time. The surname of Mary Ann born 1815 is recorded as Dunham when she and Thomas Hart took out a marriage licence, and also at the marriage of her daughter Eleanor Dawson. Ages are obtained from census records and death registrations. The census of 1891 notes that both of the parents of Mary Ann born 1815 were born in New Brunswick, which is consistent with the place of birth of both John and Eleanor.

It would appear that one "daughter" Mary Ann was adopted. In referring to the baptismal records for Woodstock Parish in the County of York, there are three children of John and Eleanor baptized in 1818, James born in 1811, William born in 1818, and Mary Ann born in ?? The handwriting is very difficult to decipher (a fact noted by a professional genealogist who worked on trying to sort out this family. Clearly the only choices for the last digit after 181 are 3 and 5, which of course makes our task all the more difficult. I believe it can be said without hesitation that the number is not a 3, but is a 5 with the top horizontal line dipping downwards perhaps due to the tight binding. Hence the conclusion is that the biological daughter went with her father and the rest of the Dunham family to Binbrooke Township, Wentworth County, Ontario. She married first a fellow New Brunswicker Thomas Hart, licence 15 December 1831, both residents of Binbrooke, by whom she had three sons, and then secondly George Dawson by whom she had more sons and daughters.

Mary Ann is buried in Barton Stone Church Cemetery, Barton Township, Wentworth County, Ontario.
